Randell's Report

Swaziland program offering – The International Office is organizing efforts to offer educational programs at UF facilities in Swaziland. Jackie Jourjy attended a meeting to discuss this opportunity and will be submitting a proposal for the trip. The trip would likely begin in July.

International Exhibition and Conference on Higher Education in Saudi Arabia – The US Ambassador to Saudi Arabia was concerned with US school's participation in this event and UF was contacted to be a representative at this conference. Randell Doty will be attending along with a faculty member from another College and will represent the entire university. This conference serves as a good opportunity for Saudi students to see what UF has to offer.

SSAP planning update – Planning for the trips is almost complete

International award nominations update – Nominations have gone out and all information should be submitted by Friday, March 31.

Visiting students IPSF presentation – The visiting students from Navarro gave a presentation at IPSF analyzing the differences in healthcare between the US and their country. It was proposed that a poster opportunity such as this should become a regular occurrence in the spring semester.

Clinical master's students from Germany will be visiting in May, under the guidance of Karen Whalen

End: 2:25 pm
